Who we may share your information with

We may need to share the personal information you have given to us or we've collected about you with partner organisations where relevant to the individual and/or their care provision. These include but are not limited to:

- Legal Services
- Magistrate Courts.
- Probation Service
- The child's parent/Carer or the young person.
- Internal Departments.
- Schools.
- Further education colleges and sixth form colleges.
- Academies (including free schools, universities, technical colleges).
- Other partner agencies that provide services on our behalf.
- Agencies with whom we have a duty to co-operate, such as police.

Information will only ever be shared when it is strictly necessary to help us provide effective services and you may have the right to refuse. We will not pass it onto any other parties unless required to do so by law or in all reasonable circumstances the disclosure is fair and warranted for the purposes of processing or subject to a data protection exemption.

We have specific data sharing agreements in place with local agencies and sometimes the law requires that we may have to pass your details on to a third party, for example, to prevent crime.

How long we will hold your information

The standard record retention period for School Attendance Legal Proceeding records is 25 years from child's date of birth.

More information about our retention periods can be found in our summary Disposal Schedule.

Please note stated retention periods may be subject to any legal holds imposed under the Inquiries Act 2005 that may concern the information and override standard retention periods.

Your information rights

You are entitled to a copy, or a description, of the personal data we hold that relates to you, subject to lawful restrictions. Please go to our Make a Data Protection Request webpage to find out how to make a request.

You may be entitled to rectification, restriction, and objection relating to your personal information depending on the service and legal basis.
