Droitwich Spa Diamond Jubilee Walks

Water Tower Walk

The Water Tower Walk encircles the prominent Droitwich Water Tower which stands on top of Yew Tree Hill. The tower was built in 1962, standing 110 feet tall and containing 150,000 gallons of water. The walk takes you along quiet paths from Droitwich into the surrounding countryside.

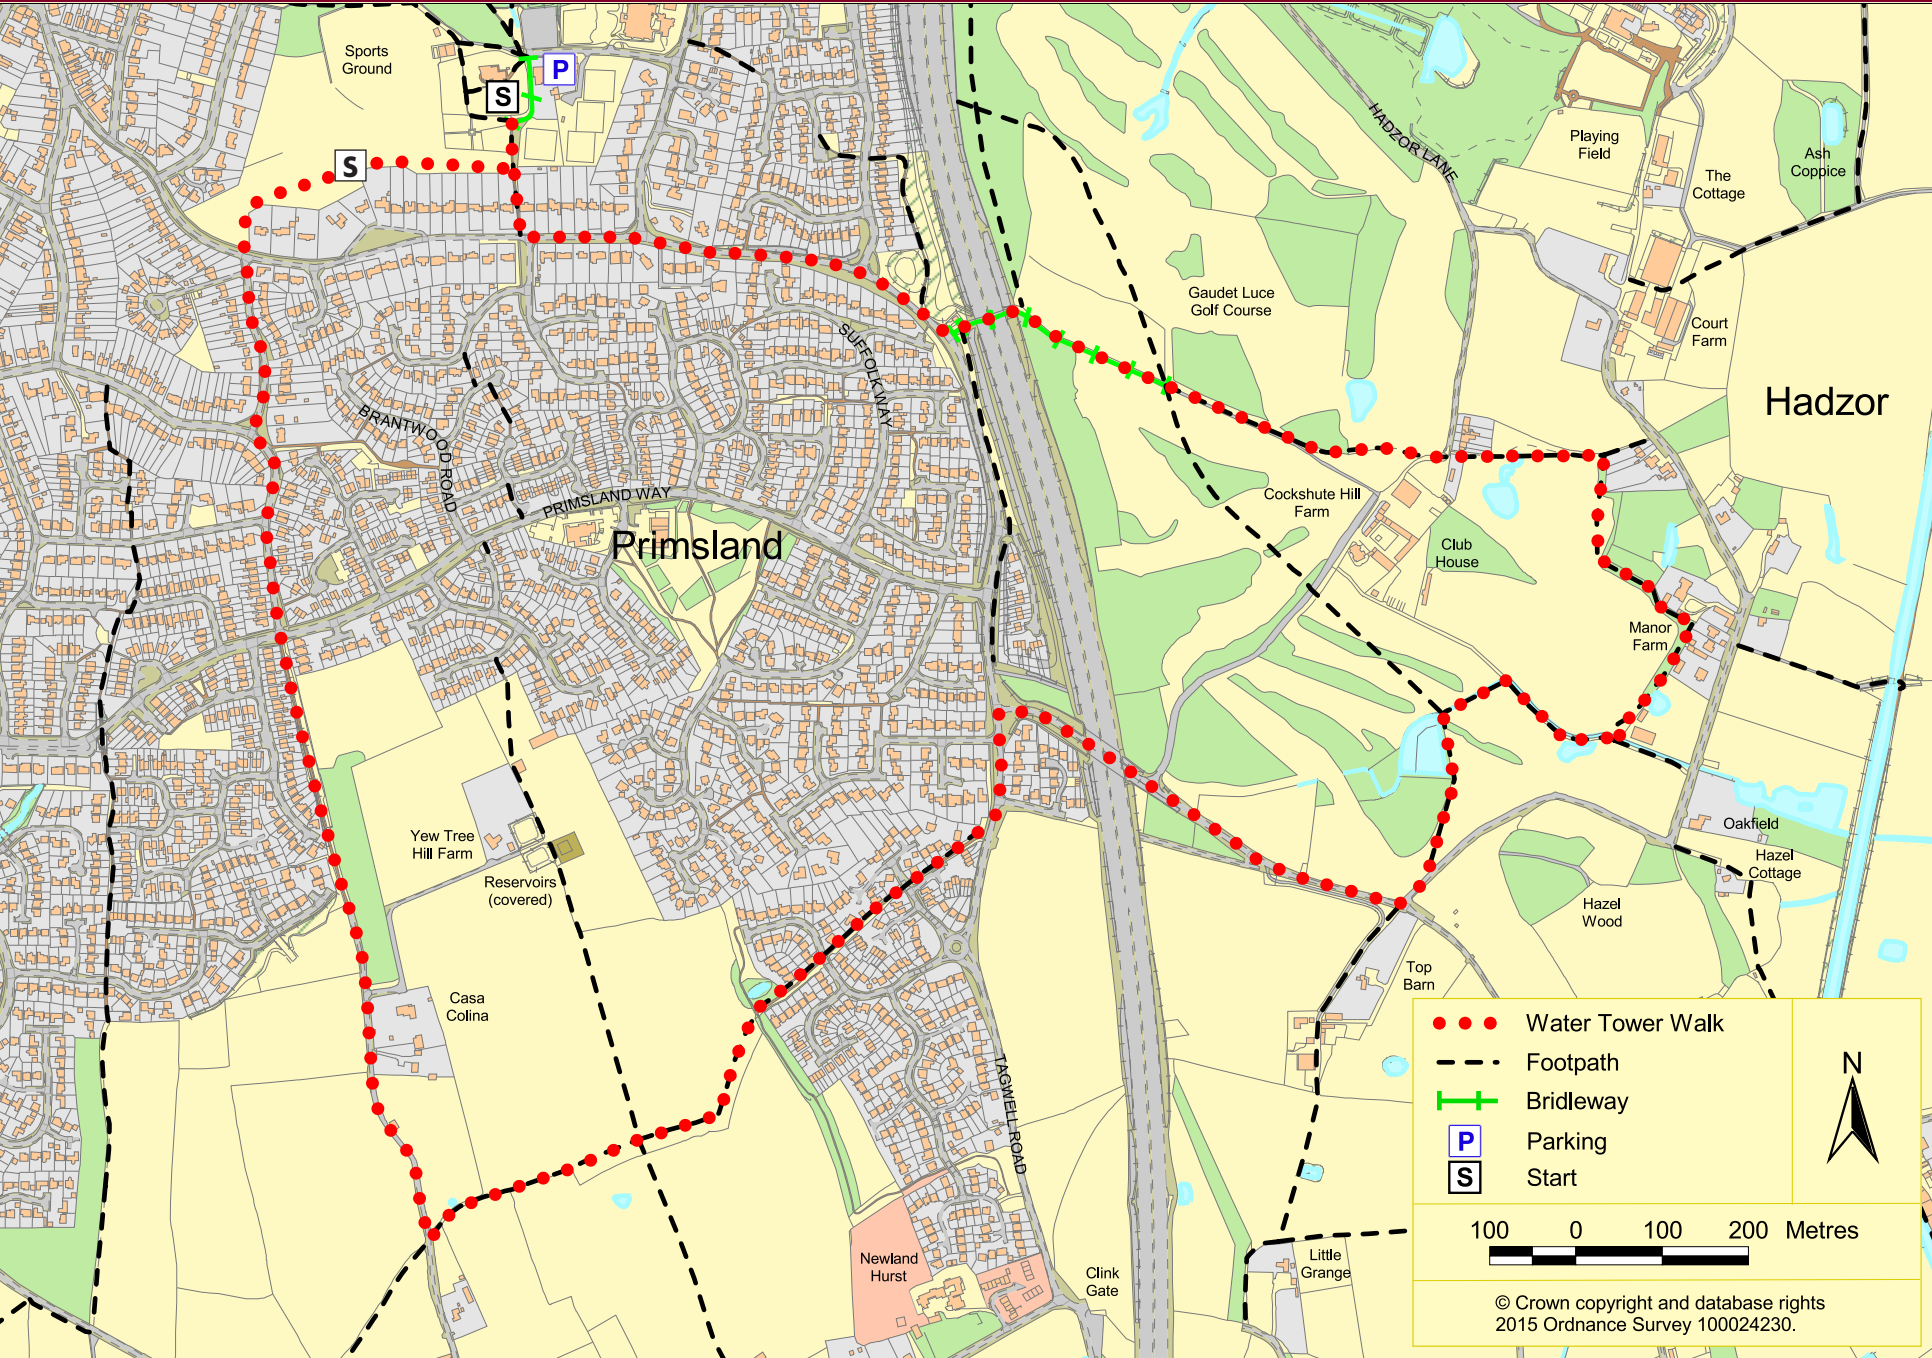

Droitwich Spa

Droitwich Spa is situated in the heart of Worcestershire. The town grew from the availability of salt, in fact in Roman times the town was known as Salinae. The brine water found here is so salty only the Dead Sea can equal it in strength and density from a natural source.

DROITWICH SPA DIAMOND JUBILEE WALKS

This is the second in a series of walks around Droitwich Spa to mark the Diamond Jubilee of Queen Elizabeth II.
