GRADUATED RESPONSE TO PREVENTING EXCLUSIONS

Purpose of this Guidance

Worcestershire is ambitious for all children and young people and has set out a challenging agenda in the Children and Young People's Plan (CYPP), putting children at the heart of everything we do. Taking the lead from the CYPP, the vision is for 'Worcestershire to be a wonderful place for all children and young people to grow up'. We believe that it is important that all children and young people:

- Are safe from harm
- Reach their full potential
- Make a positive contribution in their communities
- Live healthy, happy and fun filled lives

This Graduated Response to Preventing Exclusions was designed in collaboration with partners to provide a consistent process for supporting any child/young person experiencing SEMH difficulties or other needs putting them at risk of suspension or exclusion. It sets out the roles, responsibilities and accountabilities of schools/settings and specialist services within Worcestershire, with the intention of ensuring that children/young people receive the right support, at the right time, to enable them to achieve positive outcomes. The guidance forms part of Worcestershire's SEND Local Offer. It draws together the work of services and professionals from across Worcestershire.

This document should be read alongside DfE guidance and links to Worcestershire's:

Guiding Principles:

Worcestershire's Inclusion Definition

In all educational settings in Worcestershire every child and young person has access to the educational provision which provides them with equity of access to the best opportunities so they are able to achieve, thrive and fulfil their potential. Children and young people learn together, regardless of difficulties or differences they may have and settings respond to the diverse needs of all individuals to enable this to happen within a nurturing environment where emotional wellbeing is a priority to give them the best life chances.

Every individual in all our educational settings is valued and every person in the educational community feels a sense of belonging and feel they are seen, heard and acknowledged. All children and young people in our settings have their needs met through quality first teaching, differentiation of delivery, appropriately planned learning objectives, an accessible curriculum and other reasonable adjustments enabling every child and young person to make progress through the curriculum regardless of their aptitude, ability or SEND.

In Worcestershire educational settings, we ensure that we identify and provide effective early support for children and young people identified with additional needs and this support is additional to and different from that which already available, based on need and not labels. There is a clear process in all settings for addressing and responding to the diversity of needs of all learners through increasing participation in learning, cultures and communities and reducing exclusion from education in all its forms. All those involved with children and young people work collaboratively to enable this to happen.

Inclusion in Worcestershire is when all the above is delivered in adherence with the SEND Code of Practice, The Children and Families Act 2014, The Equality Act 2010, Working Together to Safeguard Children and Keeping Children Safe in Education (2022) and The United Nations Convention on the Rights of a Child.

Any relational behaviour policy / intervention should uphold these principles and, in doing so, act as a means to promote appropriate behaviour within a positive, nurturing environment as opposed to a misguided means of seeking to improve behaviour through punishment. Effective behaviour management focuses on identifying and addressing pupils' underlying needs ('wasp nests'), rather than exhausting ones-self dealing with the otherwise endless symptomatic behaviours ('wasps'). It is thus expected that a graduated response will be adopted to support each individual member of the school community which includes universal, targeted and specialist support; and that interventions will be appropriate for the assessed need of the individual child.

It must be noted that the pathway within is bi-directional. Intervention can be stepped down, when appropriate, as well as stepped up.

Defining Social, Emotional and Mental Health (SEMH)

Each aspect of SEMH covers a full spectrum, ranging from extremely positive to extremely negative. For instance, everyone has a fluid state of 'mental health'. SEMH should not be viewed as a negative term, only applied when there are difficulties. Proactive work to support positive SEMH is fundamental.

Where positive SEMH is not maintained, SEMH difficulties will arise. SEMH difficulties is an overarching term for children who demonstrate difficulties with emotional regulation and/or social interaction and/or are experiencing mental health problems. Children and young people who have difficulties with their emotional and social development may have limited social skills and find it difficult to make and sustain healthy relationships. These difficulties may be displayed through the child or young person becoming withdrawn or isolated, as well as through behaviour that can be challenging to support and disruptive to the school system.

The SEND Code of Practice (2015) states that 'Schools and colleges should have clear processes to support children and young people, including how they will manage the effect of any disruptive behaviour so it does not adversely affect other pupils. The Department for Education publishes guidance on managing pupils' mental health and behaviour difficulties in schools'.

Underlying Reasons for SEMH Difficulties

When seeking to support a child whose behaviour is challenging, the underlying cause of the behaviour must be identified, understood and addressed. Challenging behaviours can be interpreted as a symptom or communication of an underlying need or difficulty, such as Speech, Language and Communication Difficulties, attachment difficulties, unhelpful thought processes, learning needs or low self-esteem.

The majority of challenging behaviours can be significantly reduced or avoided through proactively promoting and supporting positive social, emotional and mental health. However, if SEMH needs are not appropriately understood and met, the outcomes for children and their families can be extreme. Equally, teaching and learning for all staff and pupils will be significantly disrupted.

Legislation and Policy Requirements

Under the Equality Act 2010 (the Equality Act), schools must not discriminate against, harass, or victimise pupils because of: sex; race; disability; religion or belief; sexual orientation; pregnancy/maternity; or gender reassignment. For disabled children, this includes a duty to make reasonable adjustments to policies and practices and the provision of auxiliary aids.

Compliance with these duties is essential, especially when deciding whether to exclude a pupil. Schools must also ensure that their policies and practices do not lead to a situation whereby they discriminate against pupils and unfairly increase their risk of exclusion.

The head teacher and governing body must fulfil their statutory duties in relation to Special Education Needs (SEN) and those who have a social worker, including looked-after children, and previously looked-after children. when administering the exclusion process. This includes having regard to the Special Education Needs and Disability (SEND) Code of Practice.

It is unlawful to exclude for a non-disciplinary reason. For example, it would be unlawful to exclude a pupil simply because they have additional needs or a disability that the school feels it is unable to meet. Other unlawful reasons would include academic attainment/ability, the action of a pupil's parents, or the failure of a pupil to meet specific conditions before they are reinstated, such as to attend a reintegration meeting.

Ofsted's Education Inspection Framework sets out clear expectation regarding Behaviour & Attitudes:

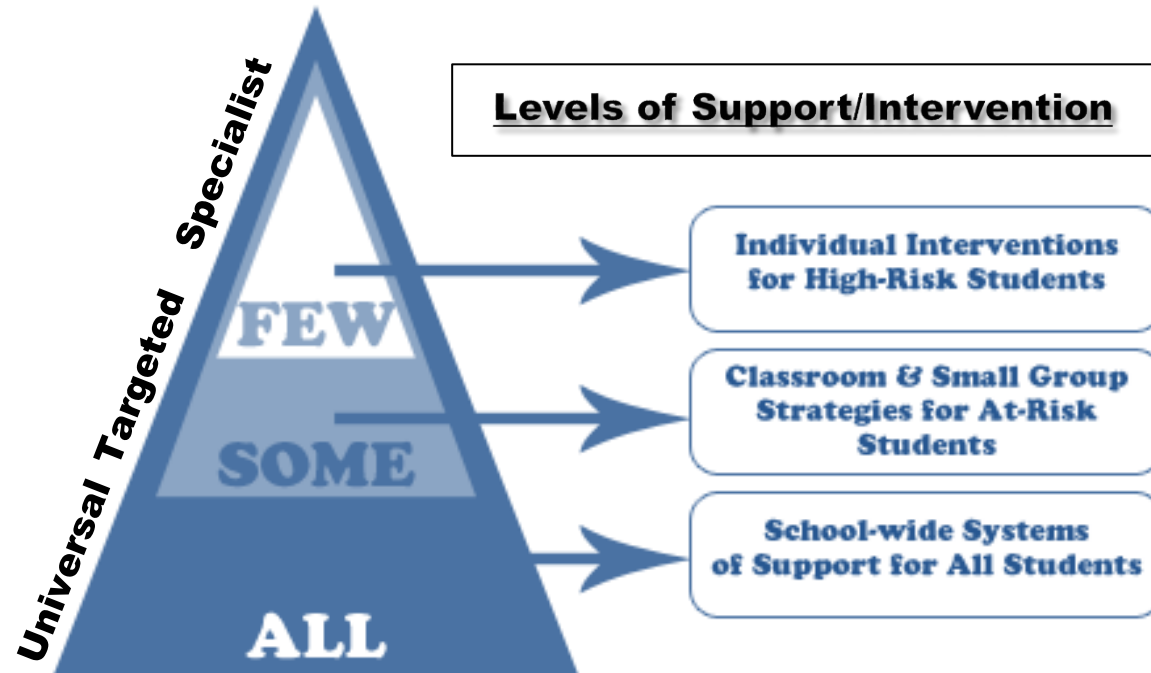

Inspectors will make a judgement on behaviour and attitudes by evaluating the extent to which:

- the provider has high expectations for learners' behaviour and conduct and applies these expectations consistently and fairly. This is reflected in learners' behaviour and conduct
- learners' attitudes to their education or training are positive. They are committed to their learning, know how to study effectively and do so, are resilient to setbacks and take pride in their achievements
- learners have high attendance and are punctual
- relationships among learners and staff reflect a positive and respectful culture
- leaders, teachers, other staff and learners create an environment where bullying, learner-on-learner abuse or discrimination are not tolerated. If they do occur, staff deal with issues quickly and effectively, and do not allow them to spread

See Appendix 4 for further links.

The Universal, Targeted & Specialist Model

This guidance follows an established model of support & intervention, beginning with a universal support offer which is available to all children. Some children, who require a higher level of support, may also need targeted support and a few children will require specialist support.

Please note – roles identified within this guidance will vary dependent upon the specific circumstances of each school/setting. For instance, whereas in a Key Stage 2 case it may be appropriate for the class teacher to lead on Step 2, in a KS4 case it may be the Pastoral Manager, Head of Year, etc.

Universal

(Incorporating Pathway Step 1)

STEP 1

A WHOLE SCHOOL APPROACH

There is an expectation that certain universal elements will be in place within each school/setting to provide an offer that meets the needs of all pupils. This should be built around a strong whole school relational behaviour policy and inclusive ethos. Examples of universal support include:

Positive, inclusive school climate, focusing on praise and encouragement

Appropriate behaviour is explicitly taught (including robust routines)

Clear, consistently applied behaviour policy (rules, rewards and sanctions) & protocols

Quality First Teaching consistently delivered

Effective utilisation of support staff

Partnership work with parents/carers

Staff have the necessary knowledge and skills to meet needs in and out of the classroom, through strong CPD

A solution-focused ethos with strong pupil voice

Broad and balanced curriculum offer

Classroom environments which account for additional needs of learners

There is an assumption that any learning needs will have been fully investigated before SEMH difficulties are considered in identifying the primary need. The assumption is that, for all levels, the pupil has experienced positive learning experiences within an inclusive school/setting with appropriate behaviour management and support systems. Assessment and intervention plans must take account of contextual and interactional factors in the pupil's environment as well as individual pupil factors. Also, that a whole school/setting approach to the positive management of behavioural, emotional, social and mental development is consistently implemented by all staff and across all aspects of school life, together with the provision of an emotionally literate teaching and learning environment. This is also consistent with taking a trauma informed and attachment aware whole-school (TIAAS) approach.

Targeted

(Incorporating Pathway Steps 2-4 - below)

Some pupils may require further support to meet their individual SEMH needs, this will come in the form of targeted provision. For pupils with SEMH difficulties provision will be influenced by the following factors:

- frequency / duration / intensity of the behaviour / concern
- impact on the pupil's educational progress
- impact on the pupil's mental, emotional and physical wellbeing

At this point in the Pathway, a child or young person may be presenting with intensive or sustained behaviour that challenges. Schools, having implemented the universal measures in Step 1, may identify that more targeted intervention is now required.

The strategies shown in this guidance are not exhaustive and schools may utilise additional approaches to prevent exclusions.

Parents/carers and, where appropriate, the pupil should be involved from the very first moment the pupil begins to display behaviour that challenges. This will enable staff to identify underlying issues and intervene early to address this. This should include an assessment of whether appropriate provision is in place to support any SEND needs and should also provide opportunities for identifying any underlying health needs or support that is required for the family.

Early Intervention should be used when an additional need related to behaviour or attendance is first identified. The graduated response should be implemented; and an Early Help Assessment (EHA) should be considered to inform multi-agency practice. An EHA will provide a holistic view of the child or young person, which may help in identifying the cause of the poor attendance or behaviour, or what this behaviour might be communicating. This will then allow schools to use their Early Help Offer appropriately and refer to services to support the identified needs.

Early Help is a term used to describe both preventative work and a range of services and support for children, young people and their families at the earliest opportunity when a need first emerges. By engaging a family in an Early Help Assessment, schools are able to identify what help and support they need and who is already identified. Help in identifying possible services or support can be found in the Early Help booklet or at the Worcestershire Virtual Family Hub page.

Early Help is not a referral process. It is the help and support given to children and their families through school's work with them and connections with others who also help and support them with the needs that have been identified.

Early Help guidance for professionals | Worcestershire County Council

Early Help in Worcestershire - Support for Families

Virtual Family Hub | Worcestershire County Council

The completion of an Early Help Assessment will ensure the presenting or emerging needs of the family are identified, and who or what may help prevent the escalation of these needs. This will help schools understand not only what works and makes a difference for that family but also what needs to be provided or where there are gaps in support. By using the EHA, having a holistic view of the child, and by knowing what is happening for the child at home, schools are in a strong position to support the child and empower them to achieve their full potential.

Evidencing a Graduated Response

SEMH is a recognised category of special educational need within the statutory SEND Code of Practice. This means that the school/setting, through its designated SENCo or lead professional, must evidence the graduated process of 'assess, plan, do, review'.

Children in receipt of targeted support benefit from having their needs, outcomes and progress documented in your preferred format. WCF's preferred template can be found here: Professionals' Toolkit | Worcestershire County Council

It is strongly recommended that schools utilise the 'Inclusion Self-Reflection' Tool (Appendix 2) to support schools in identifying strong practice, and areas for action to ensure the effective inclusion of children and young people. The 'Inclusion Self Reflection' Tool is aligned with the Ofsted Education Inspection Framework and can be used as a powerful development tool to support all schools and education settings at any stage in their inspection cycle. For the purpose of this self evaluation tool, inclusive practice has been organised into 4 areas:

- The Environment, Culture and Ethos
- Leadership
- Personal Development, Well Being and Welfare
- Quality of Education

Targeted provision may include:

Identification of SEMH needs, which must be recognised as SEND. These pupils will be included on the schools SEND register.	A plan which is personal to the pupil which outlines specific, measurable targets with planned opportunities to monitor progress (e.g. IEP, Person Centred Plan)	Reasonable adjustments to teaching and learning (e.g. simplified language, achievable curriculum expectations, practical & stimulating lesson delivery) and access to resources / learning support which is additional to what is universally provided	Opportunity for regular & structured teaching in a small group by trained staff to work on clearly defined targets, reviewed often
Strategies and programmes that are proven to be successful (e.g. Thrive, social skills, ear defenders, sensory objects, nurture groups, anger management, thinking time, studio clubs)	Adaptations to the learning environment which provide support for specific needs, such as individual workstations, low arousal/quiet area, seating positioned to minimise distractions, removal of sensory overload	Additional adult support from trained staff (e.g. Learning Mentors, trained TAs, Family Support Workers, Counsellors).	Ongoing pupil voice and parent/carer engagement, including for target setting and reviewing progress and strategies
Initial involvement from external specialists (e.g. Early Help, Virtual School, CCN Team, School improvement Team, EPS, Locality SEND Hub referral) to gain advice and recommendations.	Part Time Timetable (notify LA)	Short term provision (behaviour placement) using an Alternative Provider	Parenting Support

Specialist

(Incorporating Pathway Steps 5 & 6 - below)

A small number of pupils may need to be provided with specialist support. Individual needs at this stage are more severe, complex and pervasive and require a longer-term strategy, through the provision of more specialised assessments and interventions. Aspects of the personalised curriculum will require interventions from partner agencies. Specialist support may include:

A highly personalised approach to the curriculum, informed by the SEMH needs of the pupil

Highly structured routines, communicated with visual resources and prompts

A personalised timetable which is reviewed regularly, which may include temporary withdrawal from some activities which are challenging for the pupil

Daily teaching of skills by experienced staff, which may address specific targets outlined in the pupil's PCP / equivalent

Priority access to an attractive safe space, and/or a workstation that reduces emotional and sensory arousal

Adapted environment and activities for less structured times such as break and lunch, to support social interaction

Access to a trusted member of staff to act as a secure base

Ongoing assessment, support and advice from external professionals (e.g. Early Help, Virtual School, CCN Team, School improvement Team, EPS, CAMHS)

When a pupil's behaviour can put themselves or others at risk, produce and update a Positive Handling Plan (PHP)

Individualised Behaviour Plan

STEP 5

INVOLVEMENT OF LOCAL AUTHORITY / EXTERNAL AGENCIES

16. REFER TO APPROPRIATE EXTERNAL SPECIALIST/S FOR CONSULTATION / ADVICE / ASSESSMENT / INTERVENTION

Step 5 involves the provision of specialist assessment and intervention in a co-ordinated partnership with key people and professionals. A wide range of teams and services are available:

Worcestershire Teams and Services (see Appendix 1):

- All of Worcestershire's Services for Schools (including a link to Worcestershire's SEND Local Offer) can be found at: Support services | Worcestershire County Council and Inclusion in Educational Settings.
- WCF's Education Engagement – Inclusion Team provides early intervention to support schools with their graduated response to exclusions. Working collaboratively alongside schools and our alternative providers, the team offer advice guidance on:
  - Early intervention support to schools, to identify cases causing concern or deemed 'at risk' of permanent exclusion.
  - Short term intervention to allow restorative work to facilitate a full re-integration back to school.
  - Allocated Education Engagement Officers to each secondary short stay provision (AP).
  - Any cases of students identified as not being able to attend school due to exclusion/at risk of (CCAS) to be considered for discussion at CCAS panel.
  - Promotion of a collaborative and joint approach to students identified at risk of permanent exclusion, to involve attendance at parent meetings/multi-agency forums as necessary.
  - Ongoing strategic support to schools from the Education Engagement Manager for Inclusion.
  - Attendance at FAAP meetings to ensure any complex cases are discussed and allocated appropriate support where needed.
- The WCF Children's Services offer (including Early Help) can be found here.
- Managed Moves
The managed moves process can be used where it is felt a pupil may benefit from a fresh start in another school and may be applied for pupils who are at risk of exclusion. Managed moves are agreed by headteachers to move pupils from one school to another school in exceptional circumstances deemed in the best interest of the child. It is expected that managed moves are discussed as part of the half termly Fair Access Panel meetings. Alternative Provider expertise could be considered to support school to school managed moves where it is uncertain whether a managed move will succeed or where there are specific areas of support required to ensure the success of the move, such as bereavement support or family support.

- Fair Access Protocol (FAP) School admissions policies | Worcestershire County Council

All local authorities must have a Fair Access Protocol developed in partnership with their local schools. The protocol is legally binding and is under-pinned by the School Admissions Code 2014. Schools will work together and with WCF to collaboratively support the FAP, sharing information to secure the best possible outcomes for children.

The Worcestershire Fair Access Protocol ensures that, outside the normal admissions round, unplaced children are offered a place at a suitable school as quickly as possible. This protocol does not apply to Looked After Children, nor Previously Looked after Children, nor pupils who have a statement of special educational needs or EHCP. The protocol also seeks to ensure that no school - including those with available places - is asked to take a disproportionate number of children who have been excluded from other schools, or who have challenging behaviour.

Other Teams and Services:

- See Appendix 1
- The mental wellbeing route map developed with partners can be found here: Professionals' Toolkit | Worcestershire County Council

ADDITIONAL PROVISION

17a CRITERIA FOR EHC ASSESSMENT

The majority of children and young people with difficulties with SEMH will not require an EHCP. However, some will demonstrate severe, complex and pervasive needs over a period of time, which have not responded to support from the school/setting and external specialists and may require consideration for assessment for an EHCP.

'The purpose of an EHC plan is to make special educational provision to meet the special educational needs of the child or young person, to secure the best possible outcomes for them across education, health and social care and, as they get older, prepare them for adulthood.'

'The majority of children and young people with SEN or disabilities will have their needs met within local mainstream early years settings, schools or colleges. Some children and young people may require an EHC needs assessment in order for the local authority to decide whether it is necessary for it to make provision in accordance with an EHC plan.'

'In considering whether an EHC needs assessment is necessary, the local authority should consider whether there is evidence that despite the early years provider, school or post-16 institution having taken relevant and purposeful action to identify, assess and meet the special educational needs of the child or young person, the child or young person has not made expected progress. To inform their decision the local authority will need to take into account a wide range of evidence, and should pay particular attention to:

- evidence of the child or young person's academic attainment (or developmental milestones in younger children) and rate of progress
- information about the nature, extent and context of the child or young person's SEN

- evidence of the action already being taken by the early years provider, school or post-16 institution to meet the child or young person's SEN
- evidence that where progress has been made, it has only been as the result of much additional intervention and support over and above that which is usually provided
- evidence of the child or young person's physical, emotional and social development and health needs, drawing on relevant evidence from clinicians and other health professionals and what has been done to meet these by other agencies

17b OUTREACH SUPPORT

Alternative Provision Outreach Support

- See Appendix 4. Outreach support includes training, consultation and direct intervention.

Special School Outreach Support

- A range of special schools within Worcestershire can offer outreach & support.

Suspensions & Permanent Exclusions

Headteachers should make reference to the DfE document Suspension and permanent exclusion from maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units in England, including pupil movement

This document includes specific guidance regarding particular groups of children and young people, such as those with EHCPs and those who have a social worker, including looked-after children, and previously looked-after children.

WCF's Education Engagement – Inclusion Team continues to support those schools who take the decision to permanently exclude a child, however work towards a positive approach which encourages schools to contact the Exclusions and Re-integration team at the earliest point. Through working with our short stay providers the team:

- Ensure timely and appropriate placement of provision which is suitable to the individual needs of the excluded child.
- Work collaboratively alongside schools and providers to encourage parental engagement with AP admissions timescales.
- Offer LA Support for Governing body meetings following the decision to exclude a child.
- Provide advice and support to schools and providers around the exclusion process.
- Offer training to schools and governing bodies around exclusions.
- Provide scrutiny around information provided by schools regarding the exclusion process.

They do not replace the school or educational provision for our Children Looked After. It is a statutory service which exists to support and challenge all those involved

Appendix 2 - Inclusion Self-reflection tool

Inclusion in Worcestershire

In all educational settings in Worcestershire every child and young person has access to the educational provision which provides them with equity of access to the best opportunities, so they are able to achieve, thrive and fulfil their potential. Children and young people learn together, regardless of difficulties or differences they may have, and settings respond to the diverse needs of all individuals to enable this to happen within a nurturing environment where emotional wellbeing is a priority to give them the best life chances.

Every individual in all our educational settings is valued and every person in the educational community feels a sense of belonging and feel they are seen, heard and acknowledged. All children and young people in our settings have their needs met through quality first teaching, differentiation of delivery, appropriately planned learning objectives, an accessible curriculum and other reasonable adjustments enabling every child and young person to make progress through the curriculum regardless of their aptitude, ability or SEND.

In Worcestershire educational settings, we ensure that we identify and provide effective early support for children and young people identified with additional needs and this support is additional to and different from that which already available, based on need and not labels. There is a clear process in all settings for addressing and responding to the diversity of needs of all learners through increasing participation in learning, cultures and communities and reducing exclusion from education in all its forms. All those involved with children and young people work collaboratively to enable this to happen.

Inclusion in Worcestershire is when all the above is delivered in adherence with the SEND Code of Practice, The Children and Families Act 2014, The Equality Act 2010, Working Together to Safeguard Children and Keeping Children Safe in Education (2022) and The United Nations Convention on the Rights of a Child.

What are their interests, positive qualities, strengths? How do they best communicate?

What are the behaviours causing concern that we want to reduce?
Be specific - when, how often, what data do you have?

Why? What do we think the C/YP is trying to communicate with these behaviours?
What would they say if they were able to communicate this verbally? What might be the function of this behaviour, is it about things or activities, attention, sensory needs, needing to escape something?

What is working well?

What should we avoid doing?

To ensure that overall, despite these difficulties, the child/young person finds school a rewarding experience, we will:

To help the child/young person get their needs met in a constructive way, we will teach replacement behaviours – what and how?

To make the replacement behaviour more likely and to reduce the problem behaviour, we will make the following environmental changes:

Unregistered Alternative Provisions

In addition to the six Alternative Provisions providers identified above there are other Alternative Provision settings within Worcestershire and surrounding counties. Although these are not registered schools, they can be beneficial to children and young people where they require a specific intervention and/or have an identified need which cannot be met in any other way. Schools might consider this provision as an option to help prevent exclusions.

Unregistered settings are different from Registered Alternative Provision providers and must not be considered the same. By the nature of their provision, unregistered settings will be limited in their offer of support to children of compulsory school age because they are not a registered school and therefore not subject to the same regulations and expectations. Please be aware that it is unlikely that they would be able to entirely provide a suitable education for any child or young person.

When arranging alternative provision full and careful regard must be given to the following:

“An illegal school is a setting that provides the whole or main part of education for five or more pupils of compulsory school age, or one or more pupils who are looked after or have a statement of Special Educational Needs/an Education, Health and Care Plan, and is not a maintained or non-maintained school

There is no legal definition of ‘full time.’ However, we would consider an institution to be providing full time education if it is intended to provide, or does provide, all, or substantially all, of a child’s education.

1. Relevant factors in determining whether education is full-time include:
  - a) the number of hours per week that is provided - including breaks and independent study time.
  - b) the number of weeks in the academic term/year the education is provided.
  - c) the time of day it is provided.

d) whether the education provision in practice precludes the possibility that full-time education could be provided elsewhere.”

It is therefore essential when using any form of alternative provision, including regulated activities, that the purpose of identified provider and nature of the intervention is made clear. Specific objectives and timeframe for achieving these objectives need to be set, and regular reviews for assessing progress and suitability are planned for with school, provider, pupil, parent, and any other stakeholder involved in the care and education for the child.

Where a school has indicated that it intends to use an unregistered provider, they must consider the following:

- Will this be considered as a regulated activity/unregistered setting?
- What Quality and Assurance arrangements do we have in place to ensure the provision is always safe and suitable?
- What Monitoring and Review arrangements do we have in place to ensure the child is attending and making progress against the set objectives?
- Do we have arrangements in place for ensuring that we are not using illegal schools?

If a school has any concerns about the nature or conduct of an unregistered setting provision it must report these to:

1. Ofsted: Report an unregistered school - GOV.UK \(www.gov.uk\)
2. LADO: Are you worried about an adult who works with children? | Are you worried about an adult who works with children? | Worcestershire County Council
